Author's Notes:
Well. Here we are again, after seven years... be gentle with me, hmm?

Dirk stared at himself in the mirror, tilted his face this way and that.

You'll be fifty in a few days, you old fool.

Still living out of a suitcase, still on the road. He heaved a deep, sad sigh.

A sound from the room behind him, and he glanced over his shoulder; a flash of red hair and a snort brought a reluctant smile to his face.

"Dirk...?"

He leaned on the doorframe, smiled.

"Come back to bed. And stop worrying, for fuck's sake..."

Curled back together, he began to drift off.

Not such a bad life, after all...
